The third and last speaker of the afternoon with be Hon. J. Hampton Hoge, of Virginia. At the evening meeting, the first peaker will be General Stewart L. Woodford, of New York, late minister to Spain. General Woodford is no siranger to Wheeling Republicans, and the mere announcement that he will speak here on Saturday will be received with the greatest satisfaction. He will be followed by Judge J. W. Jones, of Chicago, who is said to be one of the west's most eloquent campaign orators; his addresses are usually directed especially to the workingmen. The third speaker of the evening is Hon. Perry A. Shanor, of Sistersville, whose reputation for wit and eloquence is by no means inconsiderable.

The club demonstration will take place in the evening over the brick paved plke from Edgington Lane, through Pleasant Valley into the park. Republican candidate for governor, whose brilliant canvass, covering the entire state, has been the marvel of the campaign in West Virginia, came to Wheeling last night after the fine demonstration in his honor by the Ben-wood Republicans, and is stopping at the McLure. This afternoon he is one of the speakers at the Republican bar-becue at Wheeling Park. He was high-ly pleased over the fine reception at Henwood.

ly pleased over the fine reception at Benwood.

"I am thoroughly satisfied that West Virginia will record her six votes for the sound money cause next month," said Mr. White to the Intelligencer, "I don't see how President McKinley's plurality can fail to reach 15,000, and I look for it to go even more."

"What of the congressional fight?"

"I believe we will elect all four congressman. I don't see that the Democrats have even a fighting chance in any of the congressional districts."

"And the state ticket?"

"President McKinley is stronger than his party in this state, and consequently his majority will be larger than mine or the other candidates on the state ticket."

Surely Republican.

Says the Chicago correspondent of the Philadelphia Press: Hon. W. D. Bynum, who has returned from a two weeks' campaigning tour through Ohio and West Virginia, says there is no question about the results in each state. Ohio, he thinks, will give McKinley not less than 60,000 plurality and West Virginia not less than 15,000 plurality. "I never," said he, saw such a condition of sentiment in a national campaign. In all my travels and mingling with the people around the hotels, I never heard a single person advocating the cause of Mr. Bryan. I presume I mingled with a great many Democrats, but they were perfectly mute. "West Virginia is having the greatest boom I ever saw. In Wheeling and Parkersburg, in 1896, there were a large number of Gold Democrats, all of whom are carnestly supporting Mr. McKinley. In fact, the prosperity in that state is so great that Bryantsm has been com-pletely submerged."

The Cincinnati Enquirer, John R.

McLean's paper, prints a dispatch from Hinton, W. Va., to-day which begins as follows:
"A complete poll of more than two-thirds of the counties in West Virginia has been made by the agents of the Democratic campaign committee. It shows that the Democratic majority in the state will be from 6,000 to 8,000.

This situation might be regarded with comfort if it were not for the fact that an equally complete and presumable accurate poll showed a Democratic majority of 10,000 before the election of 1896, when the state went for McKinley by something over 12,000.

The Enquirer's correspondent says that the Democratid managers in West Virginia claim that "colonizing" upset their poil in West Virginia, and may do the same thing this year. The silly claim that the Democratic poll in 1896 was 22,000 votes out of the way on ac-counts of "colonizing," and that the same thing is likely to happen this year is the explanation the Democrats are putting out in advance for defeat in West Virginia. "The Press" correspondent was in West Virginia just before the election of 1896, and was told by the Democratic managers that a complete poll of the state had not been made by them. The Chicago Record, an independent newspaper, prints a letter from its cor-espondent, William E. Curtis, who has seen investigating conditions in West Virginia. Mr. Curtis says that the prosperity of the state under the Mc-Kinley administration has been so great that the Democrats will have but little or no chance of carrying the state. In part, he gays:

"For this reason, and some others, the Democratic managers have practic-ally abandoned the attempt to carry the state for Bryan, and are now devoting themselves almost exclusively to the congressional and legislative tickets. "With the presidential ticket the Republicans seem to have a decided advantage, which the Democratic mana-gers will concede privately, although publicly they claim a plurality of 7,600. This, however, is merely a bluff. They might as well put their figures at 10,000. They have no money to make a thorough poll, and they admit it.

"The Republicans have made one thorough poll, and are now making an-other, upon which the claim the state for McKinley by 12,000 majority, at the lowest, and probably 15,000. They claim also that if the drift to the Republican side is as rapid during the next two weeks as it has been during the last two weeks, McKinley's majority in this state will be over 25,000.

No doubt whatever is felt by Chairman Hunna of the result in West Virginia. It is as safe for McKinley as is Ohlo.

A 'Heavy Frost."

A 'Heavy Frost.''

The heaviest frost of the season occurred in Martin's Ferry last evening, and it was such a heavy one that it almost reached the 22-degree mark. The Democrats endeavored to celebrate last evening as they did once before, and the meeting was a repetition of the first one. Every effort was exerted in making the street demonstration a large one, but their efforts were not crowned with success by any means and the general expression by both Democrats and Republicans was that it was a fat failure. 'Sucker Rod' Jones, who was scheduled for an address, telegraphed at a late hour that he could not come, but the state Democratic committee sent a man who was equally as good and answered all purposes. In the person of Western Starr, of 'Chicago. His speech was a long, thesome and prosey one to the few that had gathered at the Star theatre. To demonstrate the fact that what was to have been the largest meeting in eastern Ohlo was a failure a few figures which are nostilyely acthat what was to have been the largest meeting in eastern Ohio was a failure a few figures which are positively accurate are given. The number of marchers in the parade, including horsemen, drum corps and men in cabs, numbered 648. The exact number that attended the address in the Star theatre was 212, including vice presidents, thirty-five of whom were women, and a concervative estimate places the number of Republicans in attendance at one hundred.

A party of Randolph county people who are the ballot commissioners, composed of State Senator Stark L. Baker, Circuit Clerk G. N. Wilson and Attorney James A. Bent, are in the city. overseeing the printing of the ballots for Randolph county, which is being done at the Intelligencer job office. Senator Baker, when interviewed by an Intelligencer man last night, ex-pressed his belief that Congressman Dayton would without doubt be re-clected in the Second district. He

DEMOCRATIC DESPERATION

Shown Last Night in a Weak Attempt to Prevent a Republican Meeting at Greggsville.

An example of Democratic despera tion was shown last night in the attempt to prevent the Republican meet-ing at Greggsville, which was sched-uled to take place at the school house. The board of trustees of the town is composed of two Democrats and one Republican. Notwithstanding the fact that many Democratic meetings have been held in the school house this campaign, the door was closed and barred to prevent the meeting from taking place. The committee in chargo offered to pay for the gas and cleaning the place or any other incidental ex-penses, but they were refused.

A Republican aptly remarked that it was not the first time that the Demo-cratic party was opposed to the open-ing of school houses. The meeting, however, was held, and it was a big and enthusiastic one. A wagon was secured and taken to a vacant lot, and from this rostrum Republican elo-quence was heard by the large crowd present.

The Six Footers from this city went out to the meeting forty strong, and were cheered along the line of march. Mr. Bowman acted as chairman of the meeting, and introduced the speakers in a few words. Mr. Arbenz made an excellent talk, showing his hearers the unprecedentedly prosperous condition of the country. He talked of the evident lack of sin-cerity of Mr. Bryan, and was frequently interrupted with applause. M. Frank W. Nesbitt, candidate for prosecuting attorney, was the next sper-ker introduced, and he made a good mpression. He took up the Democrat ic issues of trusts, imperialism and militarism, and easily disposed of the false arguments of the party of Bryan. He was enthusiastically cheered whe he closed his remarks.

Mr. George A. Laughlin, candidate for the legislature, was the next speaker, and he particularly pointed out the advantager to the state that have ac-crued as a result of Republican admin-istration. He referred to the large in-creases in wages, especially those of the miners, and made a hit, as meeting was held in front of a coal tipple, Mr. Addison Israel, candidate for as sessor, was called on, and made a brief speech. Mr. North, candidate for com-missioner in Richland district, was called for, but he had left a few minutes before, and the crowd was disappointed at not being able to hear him.

WHEELING PRESBYTERY

Meets at High Ridge and Grants License for the Organization of the Second United Presbyterian Church in Wheeling.

At a meeting of Wheeling presbytery of the United Presbyterian church yes-terday at High Ridge, action was taken on the petition from Wheeling for the organization of the Second United church, the petition containing the names of 265 applicants. The petition was opposed by Rev. A. R. Robinson, of Martin's Ferry; Rev. C. P. Proudfit, of Bellaire; Rev. E. D. Dedge, of Belmont: Rav. R. G. Campbell, of New Athens, and others, but when Rev. Dr. Balph, of St. Clairsville, pointed out that there was nothing in the can that there was nothing in the canons of the church that could be urged to prevent favorable action on the petition, there was a change of sentiment, and the petition was acted upon favorably by a decisive majority vote. Rev. J. H. Littell, of Wheeling, already chosen pastor of the Second church, and Elders Joseph Clemens and D. F. McCloy were appointed to organize the new church, and hold an election for elders and other church officers. Many members of the new congregation were present. Mr. John M. Brown represented the First church of Wheeling.
